HISTORY

Preface

By his will the Reverend Robert C. Waterston left under certain conditions to the Massachusetts Historical Society his Library and collection of Autograph Letters, Papers and Documents, besides the sum of $40,000 for specified purposes. These conditions have now been complied with; and the printing of this Catalogue was one of the purposes named by Mr. Waterston. The Library is a miscellaneous collection, such as a man of leisure and literary tastes would make, who in a general way followed his own personal inclination rather than any special branch of study. Books relating to England and Great Britain and works on architecture and the fine arts are largely represented in the collection. There are also some missals and other early manuscripts, and nearly a score of incunabula.

Robert Cassie Waterston was born at Kennebunk, Maine, on March 20, 1812, and died in Boston, on February 21, 1893. He was married, on April 21, 1840, to Anna Cabot Lowell, youngest daughter of President Josiah Quincy; she died in Newton, on October 14, 1899. Mr. Waterston was chosen a member of the Historical Society on June 9, 1859. Extracts from his will relating to the bequest are printed in the Proceedings (second series, VIII. 172, 173) of the Society for April, 1893; and his Memoir, by our associate Josiah P. Quincy, is given in the same volume (pp. 292–302). The books were received at the Library early in November, 1899, soon after the death of his widow.

328381

The catalogue of the Waterston Collection has been prepared by Mr. Julius Herbert Tuttle, Assistant Librarian of the Society, who has devoted much time and thought to it; and to him belongs the credit of the work.

For the Committee,

SAMUEL A. GREEN.
